

UNIONS WAIKATO

INVITES YOU TO A MEETING WITH

KRISTINE BARTLETT

When: Wednesday 25 March 2015

Where: Media Centre, Rhode Street School, Hamilton

Time: 6pm

CTU congratulates Kristine Bartlett and the Service and Food Workers Union, Nga Ringa Tota for the historic legal victory for thousands of low-paid women workers.

The win is a huge step forward for the rights of working women. Caregivers and other low-paid women workers will celebrate this finding. It shows that for far too long "women's work" has been under-valued and underpaid.

Kristine Bartlett has worked as a caregiver for 20 years. She, like thousands of other carers is earning close to the minimum wage and this finding shows that her pay rate is based on her gender rather than her skills, effort and responsibility.

It's a huge step forward, but the battle isn't over. Unions Waikato is proud to welcome Kristine to the Waikato and invite you to join us at a meeting to hear Kristine's story.
