

WORLD WAR 1 SPEAKER PROGRAMME

NEW ZEALAND
WW100

A series of talks on various aspects of the Home Front in Hamilton and the Waikato during WW1.

August 6

Eris Parker – talking about how money was raised for the war in Cambridge. Interweaving this with the lives of the Waikato soldiers and their families

August 13

Alexy Simmons – looking at food and cooking, both at home and in the military training camps

August 20

Lyn Williams – looking at women on the Home Front, particularly as represented in the cemeteries

August 27

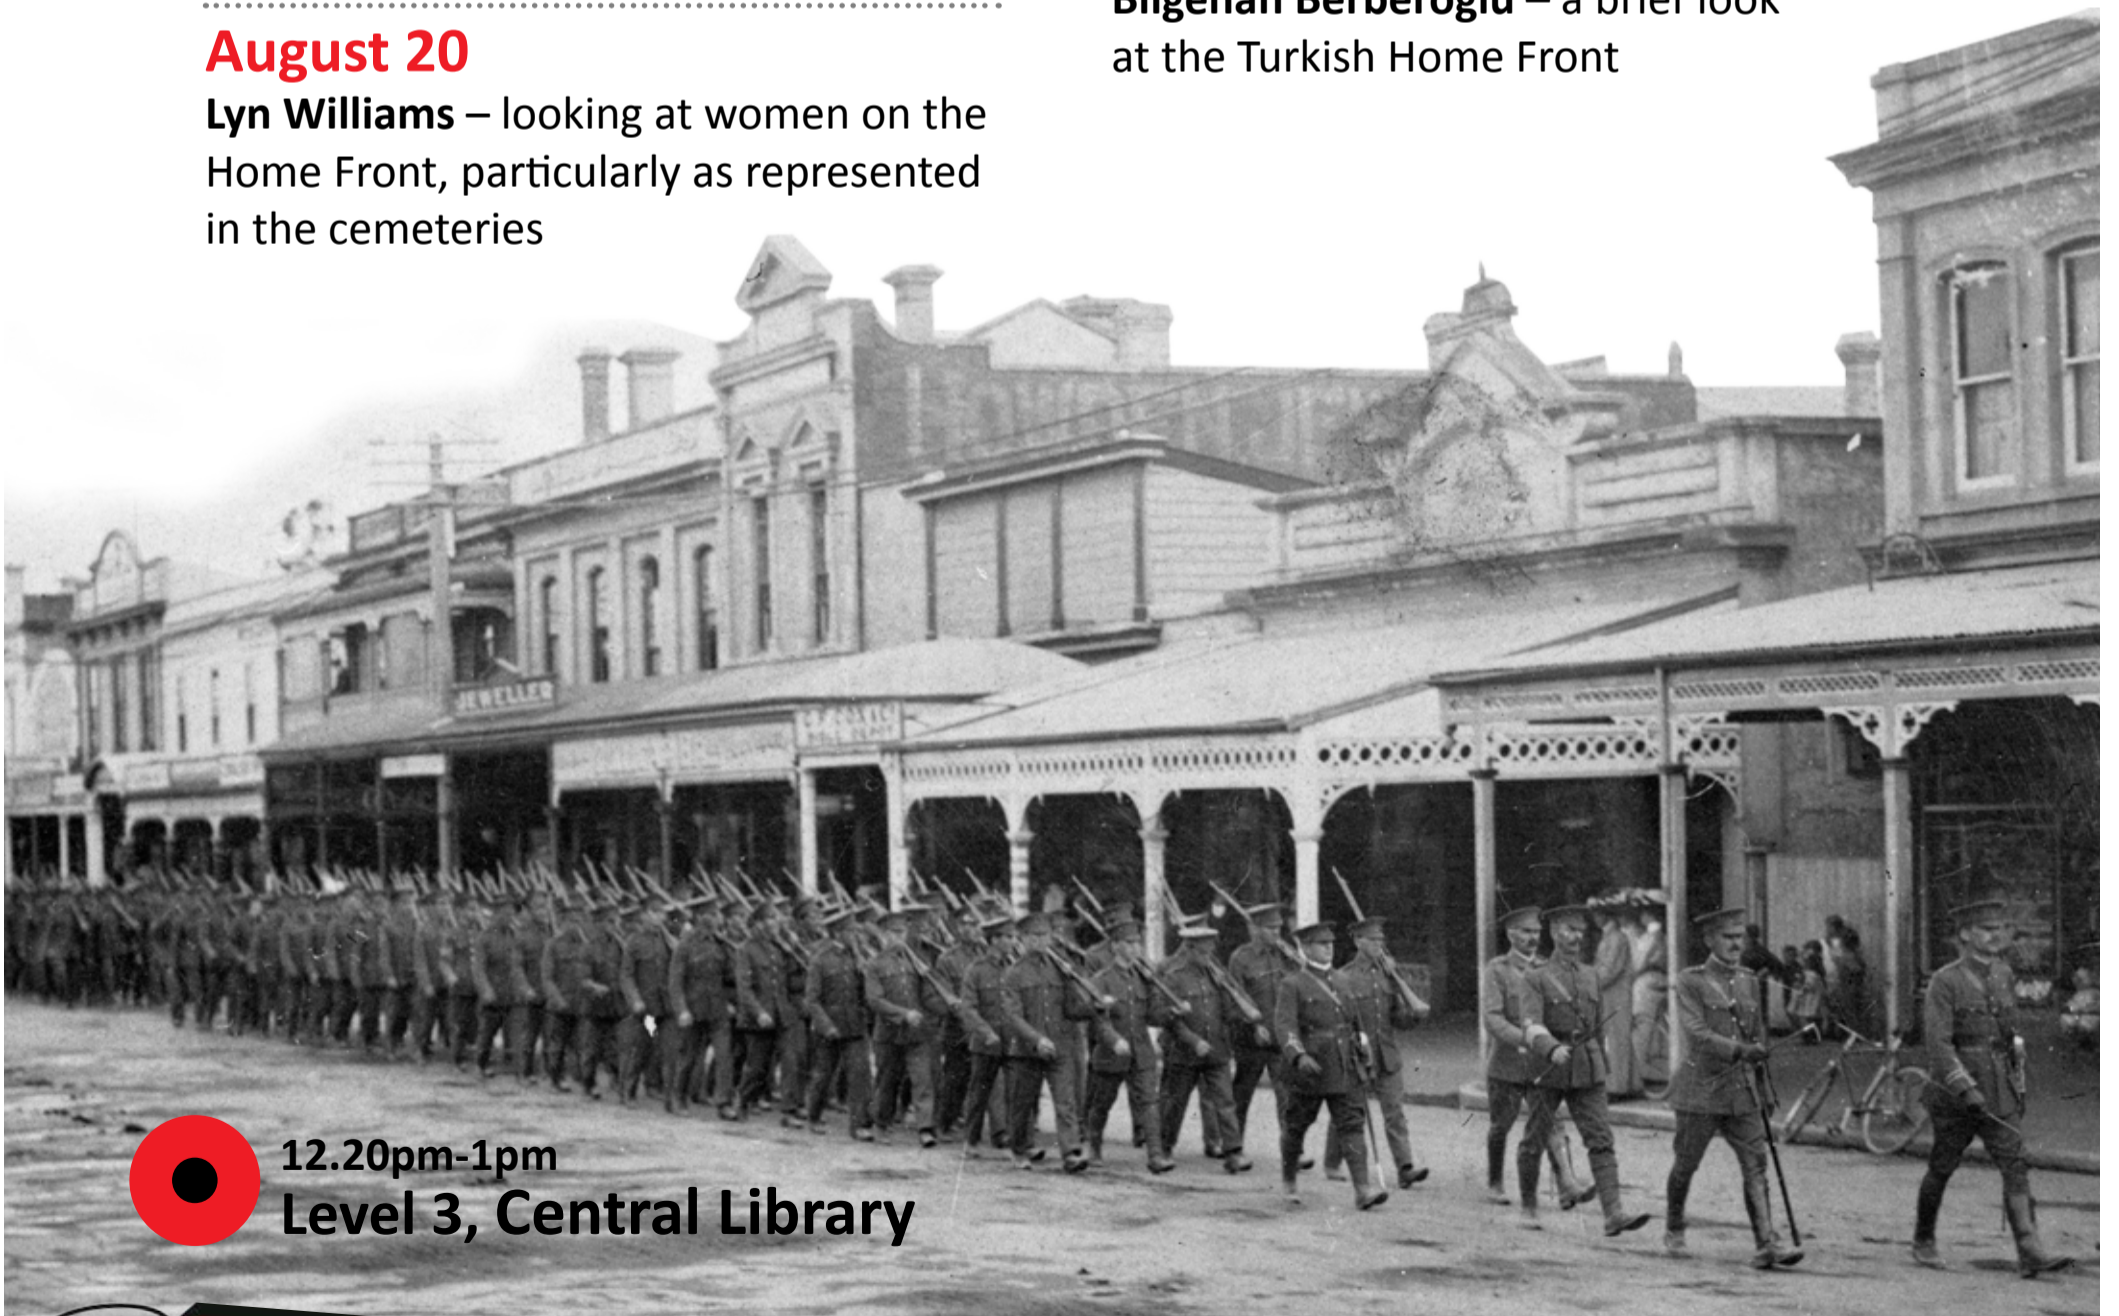

Murray Frost – talking about the commemoration of WWI through the naming of Hamilton's streets

September 3

Shelley North – a session on how to research WWI ancestors

September 10

Bilgehan Berberoglu – a brief look at the Turkish Home Front

12.20pm-1pm
Level 3, Central Library

www.hamiltonlibraries.co.nz

 Hamilton City Libraries
TE OHOMAURI O KIRIKIRIROA